J. Spilberg sculp

London, Pubd by J. Boydell, March 25. 1781.

Portrait of a woman in profile, facing left. The portrait is rendered in a soft, sketchy style, possibly a pencil or light ink drawing. The woman has dark, wavy hair and is wearing a high-collared garment. The portrait is centered on a large, rectangular piece of aged, yellowish paper that is pasted onto a larger, cream-colored page. The paper shows signs of wear, including small dark spots and a slightly irregular edge.
